Verse 1:

C F Dm Dm
Born in the country and I like that country smile

F Dm Dm
That I knew and a big harvest moon

That shone by supertime in the dusty afternoon

Verse 2:

We played for just a nickel every time we got to town

And I bought you a dime diamond ring

We were princesses and kings

When the world gets too heavy
And the shadows cross my mind
Like brave mountaineers
We never were much bothered by time
