Verse 1:

Hello darkness, my old friend, I've come to talk with you again
Because a vision softly creeping, left its seeds while I was sleeping
And the vision that was planted in my brain still remains
Within the sound of silence

Verse 2:

In restless dreams I walked alone, narrow streets of cobblestone
'Neath the halo of a street lamp, I turned my collar to the cold and damp
When my eyes were stabbed by the flash of a neon light that split the night
And touched the sound of silence

People talking without speaking, people hearing without listening
People writing songs that voices never share, and no one dare
