Verse 1:

C G
Me and Betty Oshawa, we had a little band
Dm F
I met her in a parking lot when I answered a want ad
C G
We played every little juke-joint and every single bar
Dm F
Every little honky-tonk you could get to with a car

CHORUS:

F////C//// G
And it was 'Fire On The Mountain'
Dm F
That was her favorite one
C
But there wasn't nothin' that, I didn't know
G
So we played the Top 40 Radio
Dm F

C G Dm F
I was wrong

Verse 2:

C G
Me and Betty Oshawa, we didn't really get along
Dm F
My ego was as big, as a roadhouse parking lot
C G
And sometimes I'd hear her prayin', outside her dressing room
Dm F
For help with the songs, she didn't want to do

CHORUS:

F // // C // // G
And it was 'Fire On The Mountain'
Dm F
That was her favorite one

So we played the Top 40 Radio

Even though we didn't really like the songs
C G Dm F

Verse 2:

C G
Betty got a record deal and she's living in L.A.
Dm F
I work in a grocery store every single day
C G
Sometimes she comes to town, she plays the local hall
Dm F
She always leaves her number, but I don't return the call

CHORUS:

F // // C // // G
And it's 'Fire On The Mountain'
Dm F
That's still her favorite one

And there's still nothing that, I don't know

She's on the Top 40 Radio

How I love it, when I hear them play her songs
