In the summertime with those pals of mine

With the winter snow, the camps we'd go

Into Waltham just up yonder

And we'd lumberjack up the Pontiac

Verse 3:

When the spring come 'round and the drive was down
All the stores and shops were busy
And to spend the dough, Fort Coulonge we'd go
Where we'd find new Sunday clothes
Then Lavigne's Hotel, where we'd sing and yell
And we'd dance the young girls dizzy
Oh, we're lumberjack from the Pontiac
Where the old Black River flows

CHORUS:

Carry me, to the land of the white pine timber
Take me back, where the old Black River flows
There I'll be, with the old pals I remember
In the little shack up the Pontiac
Where the old Black River flows
