Turning Toward the Morning

Gordon Bok

Key of G

4/4 time Strum: d- dududu

INTRO: G //// G ////

Verse 1:

When the deer has bedded down and the bear has gone to ground
And the Northern goose has wandered off to warmer bay and sound
It's so easy in the cold to feel the darkness of the year
And the heart is growing lonely for the morning

Verse 2:

When October's growing thin and November's coming home
You'll be thinking of the season and the sad things that you've seen
And you hear that old wind walkin', hear him singing high and thin
You could swear he's out there singing of your sorrow

CHORUS:

Oh, my Joanie, don't you know that the stars are swinging slow
And the seas are rollin' easy as they did so long ago?
If I had a thing to give you, I would tell you one more time

G Am C G
That the world is always turning toward the morning

Verse 3:

G G C C
So, the darkness falls around you and you hear the North wind blow
G G Am D D7
And you hear him call your name out, as he walks the bitter snow
G G C C
That old wind don't mean you trouble, he don't care or even know
G Am C G
He's just walkin' down the darkness toward the morning

Verse 4:

G G C C
It's a pity we don't know what the little flowers know
G G Am D D7
They can't face the cold November, they can't take the wind and snow
G G C C
They put their glories all behind them, bow their heads and let it go
G Am C G
But you know they'll be there shining in the morning
